September 26, 2026 For immediate release

The Cork Tucson's 2026 Fun Chili Cook-Off raised more than $34,700 for the Arizona Daily Star Sportsmen's Fund "Send A Kid To Camp" program, making it the most successful fundraiser in the event's 22-year history. According to Chairwoman Marianne Gill, the annual event has now raised more than $381,900 for the charitable program since its inception, helping provide camp opportunities for children throughout Southern Arizona.

Competition was strong among this year's participants, with Millie's Haus taking first-place honors for the second consecutive year. The Cork Tucson earned second place, while first-time contestant Bashful Bandit captured third place. Additional participating restaurants included Eclectic Café, Canyon's Crown, Uncork'd Kitchen and Cocktails, and Fini's Landing.

The event's success was made possible through the support of numerous sponsors, including My Arizona Family Trust, Ashton Family Foundation, John Silvey, Brake Masters, David and Becci Syre, Maureen Brooks, Dusty Jackets Books, Tuller Trophy, Jack and Carol Clements, SE Clark & Company PC, YMCA, Dr. Jolly Schilling, Allegra/Image 360, George Campbell, Debbie Kornmiller, Evelyn Williams, and Tucson Appliance Company.

The annual cook-off continues to bring together local restaurants, businesses, and community members in support of a worthy cause, while showcasing some of Tucson's finest chili recipes. This year's record-breaking results reflect the community's continued generosity and commitment to helping local youth attend summer camp.